

INDIA LIBRARY APPEAL

help to build the COMMUNITY LIBRARY BUWAN KOTHI

To acquire the habit of reading is to construct for yourself a refuge from almost all the miseries of life.

W. Somerset Maugham

In the village of Buwan Kothi in Haryana in northern India, the Buwan Kothi International Trust is funding the construction of the Gilly Mundy Memorial Institute, which includes both a not-for-profit Community School and a resource centre for local people. Within the resource centre will be a Community Library, stocked not only with practical resources on agriculture and sustainable development, but also books for everyone to read and enjoy. We need your help to raise funds to stock and equip the library, which we hope will formally open in 2009, by becoming a Buwan Kothi Library Patron.

Buwan Kothi
International Trust
helping Haryana's rural communities build a sustainable future

The Buwan Kothi International Trust is a UK charity that aims to develop friendly links between people in the UK and in Haryana in northern India. We seek to raise money and awareness in order to support and work closely with the people of Buwan Kothi and surrounding districts on education projects, promoting arts and communication and improving health awareness. Our major project is the construction of a school, the Gilly Mundy Memorial Institute in Buwan Kothi, in memory of our friend and brother Gilly, a Trustee of the charity, who died suddenly in March 2007.
